

MODERATE DRY SKIN REGIMEN KIT

It is important to know and categorize the function of each product and the level of danger of each of the ingredients. In one of our blogs, we explain why we must be very careful with what we allow to cross our first barrier of defense, the skin. Thanks to Biotechnology we understand how proteins interact with other proteins and our DNA and RNA, How the cell replicates and regulates its functions and how if mutations occur due to chemical or physical reaction, we can develop allergies, inflammation, immunotoxicity and even cancer.

The following score system we have issued is granted by clinical trials made for most of our products with Dr. Zoe Draelos, papers from PubMed and EGW. Being the number 1 safest and the 10 the worst for you.

This kit is meant for skin biotypes that trend to get wrinkles:
